

STRATEGIC POLICING AND CRIME BOARD
18 December 2018

Questions from the Board on matters not on the agenda

- 1) Does the Chief Constable agree with the use of 'tactical contact' as a tool in the prevention of moped-enabled crime, and is it a tactic he would consider deploying in the West Midlands?

(To be asked by Ernie Hendricks)

- 2) Does the chief constable think it important that officers should have a complete understanding of the slang and modes of communication used in today's youth culture e.g. PENG, BRUV, TUN UP and FOMO?

(To be asked by Ernie Hendricks)

- 3) Could the Chief Constable provide the latest update on vehicle crime and tell us-

- (i) What are West Midlands Police currently doing to reduce vehicle crime?

- (ii) What are the latest figures of the number of vehicles stolen and arrests

- (iii) What information are West Midlands Police providing to the public about keeping their vehicles safe?

(To be asked by David Jamieson)
