

1. A recent HMICFRS report criticises police vetting arrangements. What reassurance can the Chief Constable provide that the arrangements for West Midlands are effective and to an appropriate level.

(To be asked by Cath Hannon)

2. Can the Chief Constable provide statistics about the numbers of Road Traffic Collisions involving elderly people for the previous 5 years. What level of service can families expect if their loved one is injured?

(To be asked by Cath Hannon)

The third one concerning neurodivergent people has been pushed back to Dec. SF has amended it to read:

3. How has West Midlands Police responded to the needs of neurodivergent people within the criminal justice system - neurodivergent being an umbrella term used to describe an inclusive list of difficulties, differences, conditions and disorders including, but not exclusive to, learning disabilities, learning difficulties, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Autism and Acquired Brain Injury?
